A STATEMENT FROM
MRS. C. E. VROOMAN

Editor New Smyrna News:

In justice to myself, a defenseless woman doing work for the federal government, I wish to make this reply to the statement printed by "His Honor," Mayor H. B. Zipperer:

I called on Mayor Zipperer Friday morning as was my duty under government appointment and acting under government instructions. I told "His Honor" I was after his pledge to the government on War Savings Stamps. He simply stood and looked at me. A man came up behind me, and Mr. Zipperer asked him, "What can I do for you?" The man replied, "Go ahead and talk to the lady." I then turned and explained to the stranger that I was doing government work, getting pledges for W. S. S., and he replied, "That's good work. I just bought two dollars worth of Thrifty Stamps this morning for my son," and he reached into his pocket for his book and showed it to me. Mr.

Zipperer turned and walked away, saying nothing to me and simply ignoring my presence. I called after him to ask if he was going to do anything for me, and he replied with a very short "No!" I turned and walked away and went into the Davis dry goods store and told them how the mayor of the town had treated me, and I was so hurt to think that the man who was honored by the voters to be their representative could not pledge himself for a single stamp—not a loan, but with the best security in the world back of it—that I cried.
It was not what Mr. Zipperer said to me, for the only word he said was, "No!" He did not tell me he "was busy and could not talk to me then." He simply ignored my presence and the government work I was doing, and up to the present time I have not received any pledge from the mayor of New Smyrna.

I, too, am an American, and my ancestors have always fought for their country. I joined the Daughters of the American Revolution through two ancestors on my mother's side and two on my father's side. My grandfather fought in the war of 1812 and my father gave his life as major of the 55th O. V. I., and my husband was sergeant in Co. H, 100th O. V. I., and was a prisoner at Belle Isle and Libby. A Grand Army post in Ohio honored my father's memory by naming the post for him. Loyalty to my country was born and bred in me, and I have always worked in every way possible for my country, the same as my ancestors did. If I had a man (a voter) to defend me my name would not have appeared with a false statement in that yellow sheet, but I am a defenseless taxpayer, and "taxation without representation is tyranny."

Yours with loyalty to my country,
MRS. C. E. VROOMAN.

compelled to return to New Smyrna on account of the illness of their little daughter.

lando arrived Wednesday and will spend a couple of weeks on the beach at Palm Villa.

View hotel.

J. J. Hunter of West Palm Beach, who, with his brother and sister-in-News has been received here of the serious illness of Donald Douglas at a training camp in Mississippi. It is reported that he has been gassed while practicing a gas attack in camp.

His many friends wish for him a speedy recovery.

On account of the pastor having his vacation at this time there will be no preaching services at the church un-message from her son Delbert saying he will get a furlough in August or September and will be home for a visit. His many friends will be glad to welcome him back after an absence of several years.

One of the prettiest sights witnessed on the beach in recent years was the passing of 13 ships last Thursday afternoon. There were 12 small vessels, supposed to have been submarines, and one large vessel. They were going south at a fast speed, keeping close to shore, as most vessels are doing now. The guns, flag-poles and a few sailors could be plainly seen with the aid of a telescope.

OAK HILL

Mrs. Frank Watton spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Allen-hurst.

Walter Osteen has returned from Atlanta, where he has been for several weeks.

aged parents, who are in poor health.

Stuart for her vacation. Laura was staying with her grandmother, Mrs.
McPherson, and attending the high school.

A colored Red Cross auxiliary of the New Smyrna chapter was organized last week under the auspices of G. L. Comer and wife. A large number joined and several dollars worth of pins were sold.

The W. S. S. rally June 28th was a great success. Oak Hill again went "over the top" several hundred dollars. The total W. S. S. bought and pledged was $6,900. A large crowd, dressed in uniforms, gathered at the postoffice and marched to the clubhouse, where speeches were delivered by Messrs. Craft and Sewall of Daytona and Daytona Beach, G. L.
Comer acting as chairman for the community.

Miss O. I. Hinsky, chairman of the Volusia county food conservation committee, met the ladies at the clubhouse Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock and organized a food conservation committee, appointing Mrs. G. L.
Comer as local chairman. Instructions as to the work to be done will be given out as soon as Miss Hinsky receives them from headquarters.

The monthly meeting of the Red Cross auxiliary was held in the club room at 4 o'clock Monday. It being the first anniversary of the auxiliary officers were renamed and it was decided to meet once a week on Wednesdays instead of once a month on Mondays, and a business meeting the first Monday of each month at 8 p. m. All members are expected to be present at this meeting, men, women and children. The officers elect-

RED CROSS DEPARTMENT

The name of Mrs. Kerley was added to the membership list.

There was no meeting of the W. C.
T. U. Monday afternoon on account of the rain.

The committee on Belgian relief garments is still urging the donation of garments for the needy ones across the seas.

A box of woolen goods was shipped this week containing 64 sweaters and 40 pairs of socks. These were examined by the inspection committee and found to be up to standard.

The regular meeting of the Junior Red Cross was held Friday afternoon and parts were assigned for the play which is to be given in the near future. The title of the play is, "The Opposite End of the World."

SHILOH AND ALLENHURST

Will Walton has returned home much improved in health after spending a week in the sanatorium at has been assigned to the motor repair division and Mr. Taylor to the spent Tuesday in Cocoa attending the meeting of the committee on War Savings Stamps for Brevard county.

Mr. Taylor is chairman for Shiloh and Mr. Jackson for Allenhurst. The allotment for Shiloh and Allenhurst is $2,000 and the committee on securing pledges believes there will be no trouble in obtaining this amount.

A wedding of unusual interest to the community took place Sunday at Lithia Springs, Ga., the bride being Miss Addie Pattillo, one of Shiloh's talented young ladies, and the groom William Clark, a young merchant of Draper, N. C. Miss Pattillo was visiting her aunt, Mrs. William Farr, at Lithia Springs. The wedding ceremony took place at high noon and was performed by the bride's uncle, Rev. Chas. Pattillo, in the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Clark left for their future home in Draper.

Cold Weather in Indiana Writing the News from his home in Goslen, Ind., Geo. W. Kinnison, a well known winter resident of this city, says: "Our country was visited on the 24th by a freeze unprecedented this late in the season. Corn was practically ruined on all low ground, white wheat and oats were too far advanced to be injured very much.
The loss is estimated at 50 per cent and in our county it will be $1,000,
